

ASSIGNMENT 1:

RIZAL'S JOURNEYS ABROAD: POSTAGE STAMP ACTIVITY"

Objective:

To creatively illustrate and summarize José Rizal's experiences and important events in the countries he visited and to recognize Rizal's international influence and connections.

Instructions:

Research the countries and cities José Rizal traveled to abroad (e.g., Spain, France, Germany,, etc.).

Design a Postage Stamp for chosen place and stamp must include:

- A drawing or symbol that represents the country/city.
- A small image or symbol related to Rizal's activities or achievements there (e.g., writing Noli Me Tangere, studying ophthalmology, etc.).
- The name of the place and year of Rizal's visit.

Short Description: Below each stamp, write 2–3 sentences explaining:

- Why Rizal was there.
- What he did or accomplished during his stay.

Examples of Rizal's Travels (for the stamps):

Spain (Madrid) – Studied medicine

Germany (Heidelberg) – Studied ophthalmology

France (Paris) – Further studies and research

Italy (Rome) – Visited historical sites

Singapore – Stopovers during travels

Paris, Germany, Austria, and many more...

ASSIGNMENT 2:

A LETTER TO RIZAL: COUNSEL IN A TIME OF CRISIS

Objective:

To encourage historical empathy, critical thinking, and a deeper understanding of Rizal's internal and external struggles during his first homecoming in 1887.

Scenario:

The year is 1887. José Rizal has returned home after publishing Noli Me Tangere in Europe. He has witnessed the worsening conditions in Calamba, the abuses of the friars, and the growing unrest in the country. He is torn—should he stay and face danger, or leave again to continue the reform movement from abroad?

Instructions:

1. Imagine you are one of Rizal's closest friends—someone who knows his dreams, fears, and the risks he faces.
2. Write a heartfelt letter (200–300 words) addressed to Rizal, offering your honest opinion and advice on whether he should stay in the Philippines or leave again.
3. In your letter, include:

- A warm greeting and a tone that reflects genuine friendship.
 - Your thoughts on what is happening in the country.
 - Your understanding of Rizal’s situation and sacrifices.
 - Clear, reasoned advice: Should he stay or go? Why?
 - Words of encouragement or concern, depending on your perspective.
4. Use historical context to support your message—mention events, social conditions, or possible consequences.
 5. Submit your letter in your notebook.

ASSIGNMENT 3

“SLOGAN NG MAKABAGONG KABATAAN: MY VOICE FOR TODAY’S FIGHT”

Objective:

To inspire students to reflect on present-day issues and express advocacy—just like Rizal and his peers did in La Solidaridad—through a powerful slogan and a personal explanation, created without the use of AI or digital tools.

Instructions:

1. Think of a current issue that you believe students should be speaking up about.
Examples:
 - Disinformation or lack of critical thinking
 - Mental health struggles
 - Environmental issues
 - Social inequality or injustice
 - Violence or discrimination
 - Youth apathy or silence on national issues
2. Create a powerful and original slogan (in Filipino or English) that expresses your stand or call to action.
 - Example: “Tinig ng Katotohanan, Laban sa Kasinungalingan”
 - Example: “Think. Speak. Act. Change Begins With Us.”
 - Keep it brief and impactful (max: 12 words).
3. On the other page of your notebook, hwrite a 100–150 word explanation answering:
 - Why did you choose this issue?
 - What does your slogan mean to you?
 - How can students like you be part of the solution?
4. Guidelines:
 - Write the slogan on your notebook creatively (use markers, colored pens, pencils, etc., or even use calligraphy).
 - Add simple hand-drawn visuals or symbols to strengthen your message (optional but encouraged).

Assignment 4
